SUBJECT: PRM on Human Rights

In light of the discussion at last week's meeting, it seems to me that the most useful first step in preparing the PRM on human rights will be for the State Department to analyze and synthesize the materials you are submitting and then to distribute to you a draft response to the questions set forth in the May 20 memorandum requesting the PRM. We hope to have the draft in your hands by close of business June 10.

The purpose of the draft will be to focus the discussion and provide a vehicle for your comments and suggestions. After receiving any written comments you may wish to make, I will schedule a meeting of this group to discuss the draft.
